

RADAR People of the Year Human Rights Awards

Monday 1st December 2008

Battersea Evolution, Battersea Park, London

The Royal Association for Disability and Rehabilitation (RADAR) is proud to announce the People of the Year Awards 2008 and invites your involvement in this unique black tie evening event. The venue for the awards this year will be Battersea Evolution, situated in the picturesque surrounds of Battersea Park, London.

The People of the Year awards is the only event in Europe that celebrates, recognises and honours individuals and organisations that have made a significant contribution towards the furtherance of human rights for disabled people.

Last year's awards were supported and attended by a wide range of major blue chip corporations which included the likes of Barclays, Royal Mail, B&Q, BSKyB, ATOC, Transport for London, Rolls Royce, Alliance and Leicester, Royal Bank of Scotland, The Body Shop and Unum Provident and many more. Many of the UK's leading disability charities, key public sector organisations and a wide range of individuals who campaign tirelessly on behalf of the UK's 10.8 million disabled people also attended the event.

A range of well known human rights campaigners, celebrities and key Parliamentary figures presented the awards. The guests and VIPs for the 2008 awards will be confirmed soon and this information will be forwarded to you as soon as it is available.

The evening commences with a champagne reception at 6.30pm, followed by a three-course dinner with the awards and entertainment. The event finishes at 1.30am. Throughout the evening you will have plenty of opportunity to engage with key disability campaigners, members of government and people from the private sector.
